Reflections

If wives are to submit to their own husbands, husbands are to live and lead in such a way that they make such submission natural and easy. If husbands are to love their wives, wives are to do all they can to make themselves easy to love.

~ Tim Challies

I'll admit that wifely submission is difficult. But this kind of submission, submission to an alien righteousness, a righteousness that I do not deserve and don't really even always want, is utterly impossible. I will never, and I mean never, give up the moral high ground on my own. God must humble me and change my heart by his Spirit, compelling me to bow the knee at Calvary, or I will always remain a proud Pharisee. Here's the truth: Sometimes I make efforts at submitting to my husband so that I don't have to submit in this other way. Sometimes I make nice dinners and say, "Yes, dear, of course," just so that I can assure my own heart that I've got a little righteousness of my own.

~ Elyse Fitzpatrick

Approach to God

Welcome — Dennis Caruso, elder

Prelude

Call to Worship — Psalm 34:1-3 (in unison)

I will bless the LORD at all times;

his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

² My soul makes its boast in the LORD;

let the humble hear and be glad.

³ Oh, magnify the LORD with me,

and let us exalt his name together!

Praise

Song of Praise

Join All the Glorious Names

Join all the glorious names of wisdom love and pow'r
That mortals ever knew, that angels ever bore,
All are too poor to speak your vast
And priceless worth, too poor to set my Savior forth.

*Jesus, your name is glorious,
Our Prophet, Priest, and King.
Jesus, you're reigning over us
And forevermore your praises we will sing.*

Great Prophet of my God, my tongue would bless your name,
Through You the joyful news of our salvation came.
The long-awaited news of ev'ry sin forgiv'n
Of hell subdued and peace with Heav'n.

Jesus my Great High Priest,
You shed your blood and died,
My guilty conscience seeks no sacrifice beside.
Your pure and precious blood, for all my sin atoned
And now it pleads before the throne.

Songs of Praise

The Lord the Almighty Reigns

There's an endless song waiting to be sung
With the voice of every tribe, the sound of every tongue
When the bride of Christ on that day of days
Brings with joy unto the land a multitude of praise
Like the roar of mighty seas and rolls of thunder
Hear His people sing

Chorus:

Hallelujah, hallelujah, For the Lord Almighty reigns
Hallelujah, hallelujah, For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns

We will join the feast, rest from battles won
Tell with great rejoicing all the wonders God has done
Like the roar of mighty seas and rolls of thunder
All the church will sing
(Chorus)

Certain of that day, Christ we will proclaim
Oh, that more would share the pride, salvation in His name
Then greater will the anthem ring
The mighty chorus rising to the King (Chorus)

Renewal

Confession of Sin — 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

⁴Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant
⁵or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;
⁶it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. ⁷Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Assurance of Pardon — Ephesians 5:1-2

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. ²And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Reception of New Members* — Claire Hall, Tami Stakem, and Seth Young

Offering* — Proverbs 14:31 ³¹ Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him.

Sermon Text — Ephesians 5:21-24

...²¹submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. ²²Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. ²⁴Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

Prayer and Fasting for Missions on August 17th, The Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC) has pursued the work of worldwide outreach through foreign missions for nearly a century. But in recent years, the denomination has noted an increased need for new missionaries to serve overseas. So when the General Assembly gathered together this summer, they passed a motion calling on churches to set aside Saturday, August 17th as a day of prayer and fasting so that we can join together to cry out to God, "...and commit ourselves anew to the work of the Great Commission in the faithful service of the Lord our God; that we would humble ourselves, seeking the Lord's guidance and provision for the spreading of His kingdom to the ends of the earth; that we humbly implore God to raise up missionary evangelists for our foreign fields." To that end, the congregations of Bethel OPC, Sterling OPC, Ketoc-tin Covenant OPC, and New Hope OPC, are invited to gather together for prayer at Bethel in Leesburg (19856 Evergreen Mills Rd, Leesburg, VA 20175) at 9:30am on Saturday, August 17th. From 9:30-10:15am, Pastor Phil Proctor will share about his experience as an OPC missionary and share about the OPC's work in foreign missions. From 10:15-11am we will have a public prayer meeting as we call on the Lord to continue to raise up laborers for His harvest (Matthew 9:35-38).

All are welcome, and a nursery for infants and young children will be provided (if you would like to volunteer to help staff the nursery, please email: administrator@bethelpres.com).

If you are not able to join us for this service, we would encourage you to fast and pray for missions, and missionaries both within and outside the OPC that day.

New Member Biographies

Hello, New Hope family! My name is Claire Hall, and I am so glad to be becoming a member today...for the second time! I was a member four years ago before I left for overseas missions work. It's so, so good to be back with you all. New Hope feels like home. Back in the 1900's I was born into a loving, Jesus-following family. And it was when I was about six years old that I was born again; I gave my life to Christ and made the profession that He is my Savior, Lord, and Only Hope. Ever since my first years of following Jesus, my love for Christ Jesus and His gospel has grown and deepened. Much of this growth has happened through the mercy of suffering; severe trials have been the stormy waves that have crashed me onto the Rock of Christ. I'm so thankful for God's loving hand upon my life! A little bit more about my story: I am currently in Harpers Ferry, WV but have lived in a variety of places...CA, MD, VA, TX, and a housing project in northern Scotland. I studied English and Bible at Regent University and have also taken some classes through CCEF's School of Biblical Counseling. I love children and am currently employed at New Life Christian School as an instructional assistant for the pre-k class. I am also an auntie to nine nieces and nephews whom I love very much!

Tami Stakem grew up in Montgomery County, MD; moved to Frederick October 1998. I have 3 sons; Jack 26 years old, and twins Ryan and Liam who are 23 years old. I live in Braddock Heights and work at Cracker Barrel part time in the retail store.

Seth Young is from North Carolina where he grew up in a large family with five brothers and two sisters and helped with his family's ministry. As long as he can remember he heard the gospel at home and at church. He attended Reformed Baptist churches all of his life except for a summer in college when he attended a Reformed Presbyterian Church. Seth moved to the area last year to manage a cattle farm after graduating from college and loves all sorts of outdoor activities such as archery, fishing, hiking, and others. He has been to 45 of the 50 states and hopes to visit the last five in the next few years. Seth is delighted to be joining New Hope as a member.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

Memory Text — Ephesians 5:3-4 ³But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. ⁴Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving.

Heidelberg Catechism 104: What does God require in the fifth commandment? That I show all honor, love and fidelity, to my father and mother, and all in authority over me, and submit myself to their good instruction and correction, with due obedience; and also patiently bear with their weaknesses and infirmities, since it pleases God to govern us by their hand.

Monday: Eph 5:22. How do the following texts help explain what God is and isn't saying regarding wives submitting to their husbands (Gen 1:27, Eph 2:16, 5:1-2, 5:18)? Husbands have the responsibility to lead, but how does the command of mutual submission in fear of Christ inform this (e.g. Eph 4:15-16, Phil 2:3-4)?

Tuesday: Eph 5:22-23. Submission is yielding our lives to Christ and God's order in love. Who all is called to submit in vv 21-6:9? Why must one be spirit-filled to do this? In marriage the wife is called to yield in love to her husband's leading, care. How is submission different from obedience? Subjugation? Control?

Wednesday: Eph 5:22-23. What is your attitude to (your husband's) leadership? Is it one of respect, inclination to follow, encouragement? Or are you dismissive, aloof, or do you tend to dominate or control? How does v 33 get to the heart attitude of submission? How is 1 Pet 3:5's "hoped in God" key to this? How can you affirm, support, respect, encourage, and pray for your (husband's) leadership?

Thursday: Eph 5:22-24. Jesus is the head of the church (Eph 1:22, 4:15-16, Col 2:19) and thus leads and provides for her. What does this look like according to vv 25-30? Husbands, are you leading (especially spiritually)? Is your leadership characterized by love, care, and what's best for your wife/family? Wives, are you thankful for, open to, and receiving his leadership? Talk about this together. Repent and forgive.

Friday: Read Eph 5:22-35. Do you see God's intent of a beautiful relationship that works in concert together, in love for one another even as expressed in differing roles? No marriage hits this perfectly -our hope must be in Christ. But to what reality does marriage point us (Rev 21:1-4)?

Saturday: Eph 5:25-33. Read this text looking for ways to thank and praise Jesus.
